

Angel voices at Pentecost

St Andrew's in the Paddock was absolutely packed with children, mummies and daddies, grannies and grandpas, a carful from St Mary's, Karori - and everyone else - for the Pentecost Sunday service, conducted mainly by the children of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. In fact the church was so full we ran out of standing room, too.

Judy Wagg was in attendance to record the event. This is a small sample of her wonderful photos. It was very difficult picking out a few to put on the website.

Vestry prayer before service.

Let us pray for the Church and for the world,
giving thanks for God's goodness.

We hold before you today Tessa, Margaret, Peter and all those who are ill or grieving.

Praise and thanksgiving to you, O lord, for you forgive our sins and heal our wounded hearts.

We ask you to be with us now and as we continue on through our lives.

Lord, hear our prayer

Response: And let our cry come to you.

We pray for the church.

We pray for more people to go to church

We pray for nature animals

God, thank you for letting us have Jesus and God

Thank you for understanding us

Thank you for the candle that lights our way.

Lord, hear our prayer

Response: And let our cry come to you

We pray for the world.

Thank you for all the horses.

Thank you for the world and creation.

Thank you for New Zealand.

Thank you for all the countries so we don't have to be crowded.

Lord, hear our prayer

Response: And let our cry come to you.

We pray for the community.

We pray for all the farms we live on

And the houses we live in
Thank you for letting us be alive
We pray that Jesus will be with us in our country.

Lord, hear our prayer
Response: And let our cry come to you.

We pray for those in need.

We thank you for clothes and pray for those who don't have clothes.
We're sorry people don't have much food.
We pray for the homeless.
We pray for God to give us all the water.
We pray for the sick and poor and those who can't afford money.

Lord, hear our prayer
Response: And let our cry come to you.

We pray for ourselves and our ministries.

We pray that my Dad helps other people when others are being mean to them.
We ask God for help.
We pray that we fundraise for others.
Thank you for the light of the world.
We ask your help so John Key grows older, and to be a Prime Minister.

Lord, hear our prayer
Response: And let our cry come to you

Thank you
