

Taught and ordained by John at Ephesus, the first century saint and martyr Polycarp serves as a link between the apostolic age and emerging Christianity.

Polycarp is not a fish. He was an amazing Greek bishop from Smyrna and is one of the heroes of the early church.

Read the rest of Polycarp's remarkable story here.