

God be in my head, an old English prayer, to a setting by John Rutter. It is sung the Cambridge Singers, conducted by the composer.

God be in my head,
And in my thinking;
God be in mine eyes
And in my looking;
God be in my mouth,
And in my speaking;
God be in my heart,
And in my thinking;
God be at my end,
And at my departing.