

Getting ready

- You need to be ready to go before the previous item ends:

- Old Testament readers : quietly get to your feet just as the Collect ends
- New Testament readers: stand just as the Gloria for the Psalm ends.
- Gospel readers: move to the lectern during the last verse of the Gradual Hymn.

- The leader will tell the congregation to sit.

Approaching the Lectern

- Walk up the aisle till you are level with the lectern
- Briefly bow your head to acknowledge the cross, then go and stand at the lectern.

Old Testament

To introduce your reading say -

The first reading is taken from [OT book, eg Genesis], Chapter [number, eg 4], beginning at verse [first verse of reading]

Readers' help sheet

Saturday, 27 February 2010 15:01 - Last Updated Sunday, 21 March 2010 10:24

You don't need to give any other verse numbers, such as where the reading ends.

At the end of your reading say -

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

The congregation will respond - Thanks be to God.

Between the Old and New Testament lessons the Psalm is said. This is announced and led by the Lay Minister.

New Testament

To introduce your reading say -

The second reading is taken from _____

Gospel
