

If you want one that is not in either, that's OK. We will need the words and tune if possible though.

There is now a guidance sheet in the Help Folder on the sidesmen's table, giving suggestions for the readings and festivals.

If on hymns, read the texts – on the roster - choose, and tell Caryl or Ken. – their contact details on the back of rosters. They appreciate early notice. It is never too early!

Then that choice needs to be given to Liz and/or Dan.

NOTE: If whoever is taking the service has a need for a particular hymn to reflect the theme of the day then they may substitute to suit.
